COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION STUDY CIRCLE (CESC)

Career Guidance Seminar

CESC and The Department of Library of Adarsh College of Arts and Commerce, Badlapur in association with D-Tech Computer Institute, Badlapur had organized a Career Guidance Seminar for third year students of Arts and Commerce stream on 12th January 2024 at 9.15 am in order to commemorate the birthday of Swami Vivekanand which is also celebrated as The National Youth Day.

Mr. Suresh Jadhav (Career Coach and Founder- Career Guru Foundation, Badlapur) was the Key Resource Person. This seminar was graced by the presence of Mr. Sharad Mhatre, Mr. Jagdish Mhatre and Mr. Mandar Thakur. Approximately 80 students participated in the seminar.

The seminar was initiated with the 'lighting of the lamp' ceremony for seeking the blessing of Swami Vivekanand. Mr. L. M. Satpute (Head- Librarian, Adarsh College of Arts and Commerce) gave a brief background about the importance of the National Youth Day and introduced the Key Resource Person. The guests were welcomed by Mr. Mandar Thakur (Head- Department of History).

Mr. Suresh Jadhav delivered an exemplary lecture on various career paths available to students after graduation. He mainly focused on the fields of Management, Marketing, Finance, Human Resource and the various career prospects available in each of the fields. He spoke about the various competitive exams which can be appeared by graduates and how to prepare for the same. He also shed light on time and monetary investment required; and the remuneration and incentives which can be expected by students who pursue higher education in various fields.

Mr. Jadhav also gave an insight about the various competitive skills which the students should get acquainted with in order to ensure success in their chosen career paths. He explained the importance of having command over English and a local language, basic computer aptitude, common acumen towards business world, pleasing personality and charisma, positive work attitude and initiative.

Thereafter, an interactive session was conducted where the students asked questions and clarified their queries. The seminar was concluded by the Vote of Thanks proposed by Mr. L. M. Satpute.
