

SEMINAR ON 'HOW TO MAKE AN EFFECTIVE PRESENTATION'

The seminar on effective presentation in AVPS's ADARSH COLLEGE OF ARTS AND COMMERCE was held on 3rd July 2017 with participation of 150 students of all self financing courses of college.

The base line of this seminar was to help prospective generation to understand their hidden talent in making an interactive presentation with expert advices from well known professionals. The seminar began with holy chanting by students and by lightning of the lamp in front of Goddess SARASWATI. Then the guests were welcomed with bouquet and tulsii saplings. The program was well perspective. Thereafter she gave a glance of smart motivational videos and also conducted activities for the students.

It was an interactive session and students provided their valuable feedback at the end. The program ended by expressing gratitude towards the speaker.

anchored by Ms. Namrata and other self financing colleagues.

Dr. Vaidehi Daptardar, Principal of college welcomed the Chief Guest, students, teaching, non teaching staff & emphasized upon the significance of effective presentation among the students. The Guest Speaker Asst. Prof. Ms. Sayali Daptardar briefed the students about the how one can use their own unique thought process to make an apt presentation. Furthermore, how layouts to be used, use of expressions in day to day life, the impact of expression on others, how to think from different

The chief guest depicted motivational song in line with topic of seminar.

The seminar received huge appreciation from the students and staff. The efforts of entire organizing team involved in it were applauded.

By Saroj Sanjay Gamare
